Promotional statement (not more than 500 words in English, optional)

I am the founding Partner of Khoo & Co., a solicitor firm which is specialising in corporate finance and aviation practice. I became a solicitor of Hong Kong in 2009. I have been appointed as Vice-Chairman of the Standing Committee of the Convocation of City University of Hong Kong from 2012 to 2021 and Chairman since 2022.

I have been actively involved in university subsequent to my graduation, with a view to strengthening and promoting the relationship between alumni and current students. I believe that a strong network between alumni and students can foster growth of professional development among the wider community of City University of Hong Kong. I hope to strengthen the professional development opportunities which can be offered by the alumni network and equip the graduates of City University of Hong Kong with the practical skills and knowledge necessary to succeed in their future endeavours.
