Promotional statement (not more than 500 words in English, optional)

Being the alumni of City University of Hong Kong, I am always proud to be part of this alma mater and eager to contribute for her as much as I could. It will, therefore, be my great honour to continue participate as a member of the Convocation Committee. Not only could I unite City University alumni in one, but I would also utilise my resources and knowledge to assist in the development of my school. In the coming Convocation period, I will sincerely try my best to devote for City University of Hong Kong in order to assist her domestic and international growth.
